

SPLASH INTO SUMMER READING!

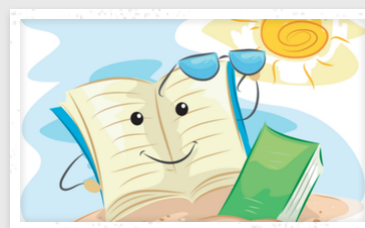

———— GLENCLIFF LIBRARY SUMMER READING 2020 ————

Reading Over the Summer is Fun!

Summer is the perfect time to get reading! Why read over the summer? You can:

- Read books that are fun and interesting to YOU
- Keep learning through books and reading
- Improve your reading skills
- Learn about and get ideas for new hobbies and activities
- Read and talk about books with friends and family

Remember: Summer reading includes books, e-books, magazines, newspapers, graphic novels, and audiobooks! Take a look below for fun ways to get reading and keep reading all summer long!

Where Can I Find Books?

Glenclyff is running a virtual Scholastic Book Fair! Shop the Scholastic store through our virtual book fair site from now until September 4th to have a percentage of your purchase benefit Glenclyff! Important: you must register and log in to Scholastic before purchasing in order for your purchase to benefit Glenclyff! Registration is free!

Sora: Access Sora on the Glenclyff Library Website. Sora is a library of thousands of e-books and audiobooks. Log in by choosing "Niskayuna Central School District", then enter your student ID (lunch) number. You can even add your public library and borrow from their e-collection.

Epic: Click on "Students" and enter class code xxk2570 to browse and instantly check out hundreds of e-books and audiobooks.

Tumblebooks: Read-along picture books and chapter books, available through August 31.

Audible Stories: Free audiobooks for kids from Amazon.

Check the Schenectady County Public Library website for information about reopening and virtual summer reading programs at your local branch library.

What Should I Read?

Check out these Summer Reading Lists from the American Library Association:

Birth through PreK

Grades K-2

Grades 3-5

Recommendations from Indie Bound.org

Kids Next List Spring 2020

Take the READO Challenge!

Fill out this fun READO board for an extra summer reading challenge.

If you complete a row, a diagonal, or four corners + middle space, you can print and submit your READO board to Mrs. Shoudy by September 15th to receive a deluxe summer bookmark!

Questions? Ask Mrs. Shoudy!

Email me at: eshoudy@niskyschools.org